PARADE, SPEECHES AND PRIZES TO FEATURE ROYALTON'S FEAST

A parade, speeches by Hon. Harry Davis, nominee for governor and Dr. L. G. Knowlton of Berea, and athletic events at which about $500 in prizes will be awarded the winners, will be among the features of North Royalton's 32nd annual harvest home picnic to be held in Royalton, Saturday, August 28.

The Royaltonites are extending a general invitation to the public to bring their baskets and enjoy the day with them.

The program will start at 10 a. m. with the parade and trap shooting. The speeches will be at 1 o'clock and will be followed by the athletic events.

Royalton residents are proud of their village, the picturesque valleys surrounding it and they delight in their annual Harvest-Home picnic because it affords opportunity to tell of their community's history, which goes something like this:

In 1811 a Mr. Clark came to Royalton and became the first white settler. He lived only a short time. Mrs. Clark married Lewis Carter, a newcomer, and to this union was born a son who became the first male white child born in North Royalton. June 2, 1816 there came Robert Engle with his family and father-in-law, John Shepard, who as a youth was present at the memorable defeat of Braddock in the revolution. Engle claimed to be 87 when he settled in Royalton and the inscription on his tomb stone fixes his age at death as 118 years, 9 months and 18 days. Engle was famous as a hunter and trapper.

Thomas and Henry Francis, brothers, settled in North Royalton in 1816. Rhoda Francis, born in 1816, was the first white girl born in the place.

December, 1816, "Uncle" Henry Coates, as he was called, came to North Royalton from Genesee, N. Y., purchasing 350 acres which is yet known as Coates tract and which he sold out in small parcels to settlers. Mr. Coates was the first to build a house with a cellar and the place was regarded as an aristocratic mansion.

In 1817 Jonathan Bunker came to Royalton from New York. Bunker Hill gained his name from his family and two of his brothers fought in the battle of Breed's hill. Ephraim Moody accompanied Bunker to the west. The trip was made in a sleigh drawn by two horses, each owning one. Bunker was expert at rope making and in his early days in Royalton, supplied Cleveland with white rope. For its manufacture he used flax raised on his farm and hemp purchased from a Mr. Weddell of Cleveland.

In 1817 many newcomers came to Royalton, among them being David and Knight Sprague from Royalton, Vt. Knight was blind, nevertheless very energetic. He built Royalton's first town hall. An early township record says he was fence viewer in 1821, but how a blind man managed to view the fences the records fail to show.

Royalton's first store was opened in 1827 in a 10x12 foot log cabin by Royal Tyler. Previous to 1827 Royalton was part of Brecksville but in 1818 the county commissioners ordered that township No. 5 be set off into a separate township with the name of Royalton. Knight Sprague was anxious to name the township in honor of his native town, Royalton, in Vermont. It is said he paid a gallon of whisky for the privilege. Who got the whisky is not known but it is assumed it was distributed at the meeting of the sovereigns assembled to determine the name.

Royalton points with pride to its entergetic ministers. Rev. Thompson, the Baptist minister works six days a week in the Fanner Mfg. Co. in Cleveland and six evenings a week in his vegetable garden. On the seventh day he preaches. Rev. Staley,

Miss Meryl Thompson, of W. 21st St., and teacher in the Memphis school, acted as bridesmaid at the wedding of her cousin, Mary Pearl Fultz, of East Cleveland, to Mr. Wilbur H. Barr, Jr., Aug. 12 in the East Cleveland Presbyterian church. Mr. Clarence Barr, brother of the bridegroom attended him.

The young people will be at home to their friends after September 1st, at the home of the bride's parents, 1240 Rozelle Ave., East Cleveland.

The Methodist minister works six days a week at the White Co. in Cleveland and repairs autos during spare time. On the Sabbath he preaches.

"If there's a town on earth that can show equals to these two men we'd like to hear about it," says one of the Royaltonites.

J. N. Veber, pioneer and retired merchant, delights to tell of the great sleighing parties held in the community when he was a boy. Each township would attempt to outdo the other by turning out the most two-horse sleigh loads. Often there were 40 teams in a parade with the sleighs loaded with boys and girls. Veber says those were the days of real sport. He sees no more snow now for he is very busy in the winter catching fish, pitching quoits and shooting wild "duces" at Hustus, Fla., according to his friends.

To R. S. Noble, president, and Miss Rose Haas, secretary of the Harvest Home Picnic association, will be due much of the credit for the success of the coming event.

RED CROSS PICNIC AT EUCLID BEACH

Euclid Beach was the unanimous choice of the Brooklyn Red Cross for its annual picnic, Wednesday, Aug. 25. As it is a half holiday for many Brooklyn people the Red Cross is endeavoring to make the picnic a family affair. Those who will attend are asked to go in groups, meeting at Pearl and Broadview roads at 10 or 10:30 o'clock. The lunch room near the roller rink will be the meeting place at the beach.

There will be races, contests and games for the children and prizes will be awarded. Mrs. A. Stillman is chairman of the entertainment committee.

There will be contests and prizes for the women and prizes for the stoutest and slimmest lady at the outing. Entrants will be weighed after lunch. The one bringing the most friends will get a prize.

Those going in machines are asked to pick up others as they pass Pearl and Broadview roads, who are bound for the picnic. The merchants are invited by the Red Cross to attend the picnic.

The following donated prizes: Peoples' store, 1 lb. tea and 1 lb. coffee; Ed. Edelman, half doz. towels; Harry Schwarz, pair hose; Mrs. P. J. Mc-Nerney, 81; Y Pharmacy, bottle toilet water; Karl Wittlhub, flowers; Mrs. R. S. Smith cake and Rehburg-Busch, dozen tumblers.

LEAGUE RESULTS

Junior League.

It seems as though Memphis is a synonym for winner. At the playground picnic, Memphis School Juniors defeated West Tech 9 to 5, in a very exciting game. The hitting, pitching and fielding, together with their all-around head work produced another victory against Standard School last Wednesday. After the score stood 5 to 5 in the last of the seventh, Wal Beer hit a double, stole third on a strike out and came in with the winning run. The fielding of Savay, Frank Walker, List, Reinker, Graf Maud and Wal Beer, together with the pitching of List and catching of Discke, were a feature.

This places Memphis in the finals which will be played next week.

Standings for Junior League.

Choctaw	615
Chippewa	570
Troquois	530
Pawnee	482

Beginning Monday, Aug. 23 and lasting until Friday, there will be a grand finale. The program for the closing week is as follows:

Boys.

Monday—Kite making contest and quoit tournament.

Tuesday—Kite Flying Contest, Heimaway Ball Tournament and volley ball tournament.

Wednesday—Choctaw vs. Chippewa—two games.

Thursday—Troquois vs. Winner of Wednesday's games.

He Started In Business 50 Years Ago With Pack On His Back and Gave This Community Its First Department Store

Fifty years ago there went trudging down the rural highways of this part of the county, a youth, loaded down with a heavy pack sack as he went from farm house to farm house, selling dry goods, clothing, notions, etc.

The torrid rays of the summer sun blistered him and the wintery blizzards stung his entire frame, but no weather elements could stop him.

The customers of this youth delighted to see him come. They greeted him cheerfully, bought his wares and were frank to tell him they admired his policy of fair dealing.

Many called him "Cheap John", not in derision, but because his prices were below those of his competitors.

This youth of 50 years ago is M. H. Rosenberg—today the proprietor of the M. H. Rosenberg store at 4138 Pearl rd. Mr. Rosenberg is celebrating the 25th anniversary of the founding of his store—the first department store in Brooklyn.

Mr. Rosenberg came from Hungary 50 years ago. In those days rural residents bought the necessities of life almost entirely from peddlers. The youthful Rosenberg, upon his arrival in Cleveland, saw the opportunity that rested in this business, so he hit the roads with a sack on his back.

Berea, Royalton, Brecksville, were some of the villages Mr. Rosenberg made regularly. He always was prompt. His customers knew almost to the minute when he would arrive. With Rosenberg, old customers came first. New ones got attention only after the old ones were served.

In a few years, the few dollars Rosenberg had when he landed on the dock of New York, had grown of sufficient quantity to allow the purchase of a horse—a black one—and a rig. The old black nag, as it drew Mr. Rosenberg and his cart of wares over the raw, rough roads, soon became a familiar sight. Many Clevelanders today readily recall that old black nag of 40 years ago, and how upon its approach up the road, they would run back into the house yelling, "Here comes Cheap John." At that time few knew him by no other name.

Even the thieves that infested this community a half century ago respected this fair dealing peddler. Many a night, Mr. Rosenberg, tired after his day's journeying put up at the Tavern, then located out Pearl road way and which was the rendezvous of the Foster gang, notorious for its robberies and cold-blooded murders. But none of the gang ever noticed him. On the other hand they purchased clothing of him, paid him promptly and praised him for his pluck and fair-priced merchandise.

Mr. Rosenberg, however, never knew the tavern housed the gang until after he had quit the place. The tavern and its gang was called to his memory a few years ago when a man called at the Rosenberg home, and admitted he was a member of the Foster crowd. He stated he needed a suit of clothes and said he knew he would get his money's worth if he would get it of Rosenberg. Several

SOUTHWESTERN ASSOCIATION MEETS TONIGHT

The Southwestern Civic and Business Men's Association will hold its regular meeting this evening (Friday) at 8 o'clock in old Old Fellows' hall, Pearl and Broadview roads.

"We want all the members to forget about the heat for a short time this evening and come out and help us transact our business," says President J. P. Smith of the Association. The public is invited to the meeting.

FOOD CLUBS CAN AT BROOKLYN HEIGHTS IN ELIMINATION TEST

The food clubs of Cuyahoga county will demonstrate at Chagrin Falls held their final elimination contest, at Brooklyn Heights school, last Tuesday. Each club was represented by a canning demonstration team, composed of a captain and two helpers. Seven teams from the different parts of the county were there.

The teams held their demonstrations from 9 o'clock until 4 o'clock in the afternoon and 75 people watched the canning demonstrations.

The clubs from the county were entertained by the Brooklyn Heights sewing club under the leadership of Mrs. H. A. Peter. The girls of her club served dinner to 50 girls of the food club and their friends. The dinner committee of whom Miss Grace Walter was chairman, assisted by Misses Clara Stephan and Nina Peter served a splendid dinner to their guests. These girls did the work without any assistance and the women there thought it was almost impossible for the girls alone to prepare such a splendid meal.

After dinner toasts and talks were given. David Hill, county leader of the boys' and girls' clubs, was toastmaster. Talks were given by Miss Hulda Hearst of Columbus, the assistant state club leader, and Miss Hannah E. Ruetnik, the county home demonstration agent; also by Mr. Hayes, superintendent of the schools of Dover.

Each demonstration team appeared in uniform and canned one fruit and one vegetable. These girls are all between the ages of 12-18 and all did commendable work.

Miss Hulda Hearst of Columbus judged the demonstrations and awarded the first prize to Miss Mae Weston's team of Dover of whom Miss Marrian Standon was captain and Misses Pauline Dorrow and Jean DeMuth were assistants. These girls will go to the state fair at Columbus the week of August 30 and complete there for state championship.

Miss Dean's team, of Rocky River, came in second; Miss Elva Brooks was captain and the Misses Dorothy Stepler and Dorothy Stevens were her assistants. They will demonstrate at the next Berea Fair.

Mrs. Stevenson's team of Richmond Heights came in third and they months ago Mr. Rosenberg read an account in the paper of this same man being held in Sandusky for murder.

The title "Cheap John" was attached to Mr. Rosenberg by an Irish woman in "Irishtown," the name affixed years ago to that part of Cleveland immediately west of the Cuyahoga river. She was one of the youthful Rosenberg's best customers and biggest boosters. This appellation "Cheap John" was really a business asset and has clung to Mr. Rosenberg until this day. Until a few years ago a sign above the Rosenberg store bore the name "Cheap John."

After 25 years of traveling Mr. Rosenberg's health failed and he opened the store in the Kratzer block, on Pearl road, in the same location which he still occupies. He then may have entertained fears that his old customers who formerly waited for him to call at their homes with his wagon loaded with merchandise would transfer their patronage to other peddlers. But any such fears soon were dispelled, when the rank and file of the old customers, won forever by Rosenberg's business policies, came to his store and did their business with him over the counter.

Mr. Rosenberg has clothed four generations of many families. Many a man and woman lives today who got his or her first baby garments, out of the pack Rosenberg carried 50 years ago. Many prominent Clevelanders today can recall of getting their first short-pant suit and their first long-pant suit from Mr. Rosenberg in those days when a good suit cost $5 and a man who spent $10 either wanted to win the heart of some fair maiden or was insane.

In his pack Mr. Rosenberg carried, among other things perphenalia to bedeck brides and grooms. Among those he supplied with their wedding outfits were the parents of the well-known Henninger boys—William, Carl, Oscar, Arthur and Rome.

MRS. F. J. BECKER ENTERTAINS AT HER HOME

Mrs. F. J. Becker entertained a small circle of friends at her home on Tuxedo Farms, Wednesday. After luncheon was served games were played and music was rendered. There was singing and dancing by Miss Marie Becker. Those present were Mrs. Becker's mother, Mrs. Susan Lescalette, Mrs. William Weigand, Mrs. A. Lescalette, Mrs. J. Staley, J. Staley, Mr. Becker, Marion Dustin, Dorothy Weigand, Carl Staley, Morris Grace and Harry Lescalette.

CHALK UP ANOTHER FOR SOUTH HILLS

South Hills nine won their tenth game by defeating the Keller Cafes 8 to 2. Dornkott struck out 16 men, and allowed only five hits. Larson of South Hills featured by making a home run and a three bagger. South Hills rolled up 15 hits. Next Sunday they will play the fast Strands Conf.

J. GOOBERMAN SOLE OWNER OF BROOKSIDE PARK PHARMACY.

J. Gooberman has purchased the entire interests of the pharmacy located at 4158 Pearl road and formerly known as the Kurlander Drug store. Mr. Gooberman will operate the place under the name of the Brookside Pharmacy.

MRS. SHANKLAND'S CIRCLE TO BE AT PICNIC

Mrs. Shankland's Circle of the Pearl Road M. E. church will picnic with the Red Cross at Euclid Beach Wednesday, August 25th. All members are urged to attend.

Mr. Ed. Edelman recently returned from his vacation, spent in New York and neighboring cities.

INDEPENDENCE OUT FOR GRAND OLD TIME SATURDAY AUGUST 28

There's going to be a hot old time in Independence village Saturday, August 28, for on that day the town will celebrate its seventh annual home coming and basket picnic.

Program—Band concert at 10 a. m., dinner at 11:30, falg raising at 12:30 and sports at 2 o'clock. There will be a speech by Hon. J. J. Sullivan and the relating of reminiscences by pioneers.

The Independence folks invite the world to come to the village and help them celebrate. The valuation of prizes to be given away will mount into hundreds of dollars and so many prizes are there that about all one has to do is to turn around to be awarded one.

If you are extra tall or extra short you will win a prize, for the program says that the tallest man present will get 10 lbs. of transmission grease and the shortest guy will be handed the same amount of differential grease. The oldest woman present wins $5 and similar amounts await the tallest and shortest women present.

For every sport event there are at least three prizes and in many cases there are more.

The different events for men are 50-yard dash for men over 60 years; 100-yd. dash for men over 200 lbs.; and the following are for all men—100-yard dash, three-legged race, wheelbarrow race, sack race, obstacle race ball tossing contest, ball throwing contest; running broad jump.

Boys' events are: 100-yard dash, boys under 10 years; 100-yard dash for boys under 15; flag race, boys under 15; special event, boys under 12; 50-yard dash, boys under 6; ball tossing contest, boys under 15.

Women's events, in which all women may participate, include balloon kicking contest; cracker eating contest; clothes pin race; ball throwing contest; 100-yard dash; needle threading contest and egg race. There will be a 100-yard dash for girls 18 to 25; 50-yard dash for married women only; 50-yard dash, single women only.

Girls' events follow: 100-yard dash, girls under 15; flag race, girls under 15; 100-yard dash, girls under 18; 100-yard dash, girls under 10; 50-yard dash, girls under 6; 50-yard dash, boys and girls under 12, and

Let's Have Your Name!

This letter came in our mail:

While the various associations are going after more electric lights for Brooklyn Park, why do you not have them get more lights out Pearl road in the community north of Brook Park road.

Out along Pearl Road conditions are extremely dangerous at night. Women get off the street cars and so dark is it at many of the car stops that it is impossible for them to see where they are alighting. Frequently in wet weather one finds himself wading through mud puddles which he cannot evade because he can't see where he is going.

As I have said, it is so dark in some sections of the highway that it is extremely dangerous. Not only is one liable to fall over rough places but there is danger from robbers at night.

I believe the Southwestern Civic and Business Men's Association is endeavoring to bring about every improvement possible and I feel it will do what it can to remedy the situation out Pearl road if it is brought to the association's attention.

To the writer of this letter we say that this matter very likely will get the attention of the Southwestern association which will do all possible to get the illumination sought. However, we ask the writer why he did not sign his name to the letter.

In order to bring the proper pressure to bear on the officials who have the power to grant the improvements the association must have good arguments. It must, among other things, be able to tell who wants the improvements.

If the writer of this letter will submit his name he can accompany the lighting committee to the city hall and explain the actual conditions to the light officials. This would help a lot.

So, Mr. Writer, we await your name and wish to inform the public that the Brooklyn News always is glad to hear of the improvements that residents wish to have effected and will see that all communications are turned over to the proper organizations.

NEW BOY SCOUT TROOP FOR BROOKLYN.

A new troop of The Boy Scouts of America was formed at the Brooklyn United Presbyterian Church, Spokane Ave., and Pearl Road Aug. 12. Mr. Hendigess of the Cleveland Council of Boy Scouts was present.

This troop having a majority of the Church Session members as a troop committee expects to get into such shape within a few weeks that it will be able to take hikes and have a number of night camps before cold weather.

Each boy will be taught, both from precept and experience the rudiments of wood craft, camping which includes fire building, cooking, etc., personal hygiene and the principles of First Aid work. Besides this any natural ability which any boy may possess along any line, will be encouraged.

The principles of the Boy Scout Movement is intended to utilize a lot of a boy's spare time, give him a plenty of fun and make a more useful citizen of him.

T. Hughes is to be the first Scout Master and Mr. Loyd Schultz, 3307 Colburn Ave., will be assistant Scout Master.

Pearl Road Circle No. 1 will hold a business meeting next Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Pearl Road M. E. church. All members are requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kail of Mariel Ave., while motoring through Olmstead Falls last week end, met some old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, formerly of Hood Ave The Chapman wish their friends in Brooklyn to know that they are now living in Westview, Ohio

There is a 5,000-home shortage in Brooklyn. Why not join with the State Mortgage People and make a profit helping the other fellow get a home of his own.

HEART PALPITATION

Health Talk.
Palpitation of the heart may be found in various forms of heart linings and muscles and in leakage of the heart.

Probably the simplest statement of fact in connection with palpitation when it has no immediate exciting cause is that it is a sign of nervous weakness centered in the heart region. All nervous strength comes from the spine by way of nerve openings between joints. Chiropractic adjusting re-aligns spinal joints so that the pressure upon nerves at these openings is removed.

When the transmission of nervous energy by way of the spinal nervous system into the heart muscles and nerve cells is without interference it acts with healthful vigor once more.

WELL MONTHS AFTER DISCHARGE

For years I suffered from leaky heart. At times palpitation would shake my whole body. I saw doctors from coast to coast before trying chiropractic. When I left the chiropractor I was in excellent health. I feel as well now as I did then and it has been some months ago.—Chiropractic Research Bureau Statement, No. 1216 F.

More homes are needed. Money for home building is scarce. Join with The State Mortgage people and help make home building possible.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wooding and daughters Elsetta and Luella of 3705 Spokane Ave., have just returned from a two weeks' vacation spent at Chippewa Lake, and they expect to take two more weeks early in September at the same place. Among the party were included: The Misses Helen and Marie Busch, and Roy Busch of Brooklyn Ave., Charles Marchie, John Barich, Mrs. A. G. Spaulding, Miss E. Barnes, Lester Chlenker, and Dan Kohler.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gordon, of 3206 Altoona road, have heard of the safe arrival of their relative, Mrs. James Gordon at her California home at Pasadena. Mrs. Gordon recently visited at the Gordon home while on route from abroad to her home. While here she had many interesting things to tell of the beauties of foreign countries, but said she still was glad to be back in the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Riegelmeier and Mr. and Mrs. Winkler and son of Woburn Ave., left, recently for a two weeks' stay in Florida. The boys said that if they liked the climate in Florida any better than Cleveland, they would bid Woburn Ave., farewell, and take up their abode in the Sunny South. However, they add that Ohio is a "pretty good sort of a place after all."

Will Knox of Muriel Ave. and Roland Smith of Pearl road, left Monday for a two-weeks' tour through the northern part of Michigan.

25th Anniversary Sale

Everything At Cost—Three Days Only

SATURDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY, (August 21, 23, 24)

It is unusual for this store to hold a sale. Our policy always has been to sell at the lowest figure possible so "Sales" never have been necessary to bring people to us. We are holding this big three day sale, not to unload any merchandise, but as a true celebration of our 25th anniversary in business in the same place. We want to thank all of our customers for their patronage during the last 25 years and we are offering all our goods at cost for three days to express our gratitude.
